GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

WHAT BARGAIN?

The dictionary answers with definitions. We answer by giving examples. Any one who inspects the following will never need to ask what a bargain is again.

25c. 31-inch China Silks, all the plain colors and black suitable for dresses or fancy work. World not have sold below 35c or 40c. If the maker had not been obliged to raise money by selling them at a loss.

79c. Navy Blue Storm Serge, 52 inches wide, all wool, fine texture, fast and unfading color. To reduce quantity we reduce the price, which regularly is $1.00 a yard.

50c. We never did it before—sell this 46-inch, all wool lustrous Black Serge for a penny less than 50c a yard. We only do it now as a temporary bargain.

15c. The renowned Fletcher Lace Stripes Scotch Ginghams, which have been imported and sold to America for years at 35c a yard. All the patterns here specially offered are new for spring.

$1.19. The same 200 Chenille Table Covers again that went like smoke just before Christmas. Never expected to sell them again below $2.00. But here they are—same rich, elegant designs—6-4 size, heavy knotted fringe. But not for long.

5c. Palma, fine and full bleached cotton, made to sell at 7 cents. If the manufacturers will promise never to do it again.

HONESDALE AND VICINITY.

Affairs of the Maple City intelligently and entertainingly discussed.

HONESDALE, Pa., March 7.—Two verdicts of guilty were brought into court by the jury today. In the case of the Commonwealth vs. William E. Kistner, charged with the larceny of money, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and recommended mercy. The second case, the Commonwealth vs. Charles Williams, Samuel Bowman and William Patterson, charged with the larceny of three overcoats and one hat from the store of Samuel Krantz, Hawley. These young men took the clothing ostensibly to get a night's lodging. They have passed the last two nights in jail and today were found guilty by the jury.

Miss Vance, of West Pittston, is the guest of Miss Charlotte Brown.

An appointment of two young Honesdale people is expected to last evening, but as yet is unverified.

The electric lights went out last evening about 7 o'clock and the town was in darkness for over two hours.

The sheriff's sale of the goods of Daniel Flannigan has been settled and the stock is now in possession of Thos. Cannivan.

Wesley Rogers, of Hawley, was in town today.

William Powell is home from New York on a vacation.

Rev. E. J. Baldiey, of Carbondale, made a hurried trip to this city today.

"A Trip to Town," which appeared in the Citizen on Feb. 15, is still being read and commented upon. Those who have not read this bit of sarcasm on our Erie Times depot should secure a copy and do so.

In THOUSANDS of cases the cure of a cough is the preventive of consumption. The sweet cough medicine in the world is Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Sold by all dealers on a guarantee of satisfaction.

OLYMPIAN CLEANINGS.

Brief Notes of Interesting News From a Live Town.

KEYSTONE ACADEMY NOTES.

Coming Mock Trial of the Phi Mu Society—Other Notes.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
FACTORYVILLE, Pa., March 7.—Miss Mary Reynolds and Mr. W. M. Smith spent Saturday and Sunday at their home in South Gibson.

The mid-term examinations were held at the close of last week.

The advanced class in Greek is making rapid progress under the tutelage of Professor Hall.

Many of the students have been obliged to leave school on account of measles.

The long talked of new bell seems to be like many other good things, viz: slow in making its appearance.

The Phi Mu society will on March 10 give a mock murder trial in the main chapel of the Academy. The spartans who will take part in the trial are as follows:

COURT OFFICERS.
JUDGE, Hon. John Limerick, D. D. Harmon.
CLERK, Dusenberry Thumberschiller.
SHERIFF, H. Loren Fassett.
Samson Handsackie, George Thompson.
COURT COUNCIL.
Tom Holler, J. Lappeus.
Jim Knoekenshiff, Bert Murphy.
COMMONWEALTH ATTORNEYS.
Wm. Williams, District Attorney.
Michael Killmer, F. E. Scott.
PEOPLE'S KIDNERS.
Z. Z. Kreigbaum, R. U. Capwell.
W. H. Blumher, B. E. Thomas.
CHUMS.
Joe Blumher, R. B. Jayne.
WITNESSES.
Mrs. Mary Mitchell (wife of the murdered man), E. J. Dunkele.
Reuben Jeronimus, C. N. Ledyard.
Burberhoff Holderscott, H. C. Downing.
Hebeck Kazzelweil, H. A. Swallow.
Lingones Hazzelweil, John Walter.
L. Dowerdown Killmer, M. D. Coroner.
A. H. Sissabough.
O. Dryplatektrial, Harry Smith.
D. U. Schuyzayzack, C. E. Wilson.
Michael Fassonick, Walter Kommer.
Drummond Hornbaker, C. D. Washburn.
J. K. Liederkrantz, H. W. Mumford.
William Henry Ferguson, W. H. Smith.
Cheekal Crookfoot, E. A. Fuller.
George Washington Jones, (colored man), W. E. Thompson.

The case will be conducted strictly according to court room regulations, and will be made very interesting and entertaining. The ridiculous appearance and crooked testimony of the negro, and of Farmer Cornstalk, cannot fail to please all. The whole plot is original from beginning to end. Come and bring your wives, children, aunts, cousins and neighbors with you. The jury will be empaneled at 4 p. m., but the case will begin promptly at 7 o'clock. Admission, 10 cents.

FOREST CITY ITEMS.

Paragraphs of News Carefully Gulled for Intelligent Readers.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
FOREST CITY, Pa., March 7.—Ex-Po-hoeman John Catter was present at a ball held in Jessup last evening.

Carpenters are making rapid progress on the new Methodist parsonage.

Superintendent W. A. May, of Scranton, made his official visit to the Hillside collieries today.

The usually calm and peaceful flowing river, our own little Lackawanna, has risen to alarming and threatening proportions today, until it now resembles the mighty Mississippi. A part of the bridge is flooded, and it is impossible for people by foot travel to cross, unless they get their understanding from the machine.

Mrs. Benjamin Maxey was a visitor in Scranton and Carbondale today. The old and popular game of marbles is raging in this place and one ingenious young lad has arranged a cigar box on the plan of the nickerbocker slot machine. You drop a marble in top of the box and if you win you get ten marbles. The house generally wins, and the loser turns sadly away, thinking that some time or other he will return and "bust the machine."

JERMYN AND THEREABOUTS.

The News of the Day Brightly Reported for Hurried Readers.

While so many of our neighboring towns are disagreeing over the office to be given out by councils, we do feel thankful for a council that can appoint without fear or favor with no slates, no trades, no selling nor buying.

W. J. Baker and Thomas Price visited Carbondale yesterday.

Near the Mayfield line, at the upper end of the borough, a stream of water has been running since the thaw. The stream was dammed back by each property holder from his own lot, throwing it on his neighbor. At the foot of the hill quite a large stream is running, and as it can go no further, it now runs through the lots of C. D. Winter and Edwin Graves. The Mayfield council has placed a pipe across the road, throwing the water on to the lots of the residents of Jermyrn. A complaint has been lodged with the officers, and unless it is remedied a suit will be brought and damages collected. A number of lots have been badly out.

David Lewis, representing Dale & Co., and George Patterson, of Carbondale, called on the trade yesterday.

Saved My Life

$5 Worth of Hood's Sarsaparilla

Severe Case of Nicotine Poisoning.
"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
Gentlemen:—I write these lines to certify that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of a most painful disease from which I have suffered the past four years. It appeared in the form of eruptions on my neck and face, spreading over my body, so painful that I could not sleep at night, and could not work in any way, and when I did lay down and get into a little sleep, I would move just a little, it would start that terrible sensation, and

Blood Would Start
from the eruptions on my legs and body. I had to wear bandages all the time. My eyes were badly swollen, my back in terrible condition. One physician said it was weed poison, another eczema, and the last told me it was

Nicotine Poisoning, and that I would have to go to a physician who made a specialty of my disease. (I omitted to say that I am a cigar maker by trade.) But Hood's Sarsaparilla had been recommended, and I thought I would try it, and I am heartily thankful that I did. I can truly say that Hood's Sarsaparilla had effected

A Perfect Cure.
I am free from sores, have a good appetite, no dull feelings, and that continual sick headache is gone. This wonderful cure has only cost me five dollars. This small amount of money has
